RIAA Membership

The Roadmarking Industry Association of Australia is the peak industry body representing Contractors, Manufacturers, Suppliers, Road and Government Authority representatives and Consultants engaged in the application/ installation of Roadmarking materials, signage, delineation and work zone safety products.

RIAA Mission Statement

The RIAA mission is to actively promote awareness and professionalism throughout all levels of the Australian pavement delineation industry by advocating the benefits of professionally applied and maintained quality pavement delineation products.

RIAA Purpose Statement

To provide our members with professional representation and support through effective industry communication to Road Authorities, Government bodies and other strategically important organisations. To create an environment conducive to business growth and profitability for members dedicated to the provision of quality products and reliable service.

Benefits of RIAA Membership

- Your company along with your full contact details & direct links to your email & website addresses is fully featured in the Member Listing section of the RIAA's website (www.riaa.com.au) which provides links to relevant sites and is an easy to use central reference & contact point for members and their clients.
- Inclusion in the RIAA's Members Directory & Services Matrix promoting member capabilities and professionalism which is distributed annually to over 6,000 Industry representatives including every Road Authority and Local Government Authority in Australia
- We provide a forum to discuss problems, help set industry standards, provide input to policy makers; and also provide regular updates on changes to standards and regulations, new materials, training, equipment, and application techniques.
- State Branch meetings address local and national issues of importance and include regular consultation with road authorities and other industry related bodies.
- Nationally convened Conferences and Trade Exhibitions provide members with access to the latest information on materials, equipment, systems and technology.
- Members receive our industry's "Roadmarker" magazine which is now incorporated within the "Roads" magazine keeping you up to date with Industry issues and developments.
- National Sub-committees made up of interested members are convened by the RIAA to discuss industry issues and provide a forum to act on these matters. Currently the Committees are Marketing, Car Parks, Safety, Technical, Signs and Certification.
- As Members you can use the RIAA membership logo to promote your business on business stationery, in advertising and on vehicles
- Discounted Member rates for "Roadmarker" advertising, training and Conferences & Seminars
- Membership Certificates & Reflective "RIAA Members" Vehicle Logos are provided annually
